I was very impressed with the resources the Partnership employed to help influence this important legislation.

The group met with the Western New York Legislature Delegation and advocated for making the extension a part the State Budget agreement being developed by the Governor and legislative leaders. In the end, a 10-year extension was passed.

"I was very impressed with the resources the Partnership employed to help influence this important legislation," says Savarino. "Not only their advocacy expertise, but also their willingness to roll up their sleeves and get to work."

What can you build with the help of the Partnership?

Advocacy for the Brownfield Cleanup Program extension offers just one example of how the Buffalo Niagara Partnership is committed to deeper engagement with our members and the community. Learn more about what membership can do for your business.